

In Romans 11:11-24 Paul provides 4 evidences that God intends to save His people by orchestrating a specific progression of events: (1st) hardening the Jews (2nd) saving the Gentiles (3rd) saving the Jews.

- I. The progression is evident in the purpose of Israel's hardening (vs. 11-12)
- II. The progression is evident in Paul's ministry (vs. 13-15).
- III. The progression is evident in the reality of the elective promises of God to the patriarchs applied to God's chosen people (vs. 16-18).
- IV. The progression is evident in the nature of saving faith (vs. 19-24).

In Romans 11:11-24 Paul provides 4 evidences that God intends to save His people by orchestrating a specific progression of events: (1st) hardening the Jews (2nd) saving the Gentiles (3rd) saving the Jews.

- I. The progression is evident in the purpose of Israel's hardening (vs. 11-12)
- II. The progression is evident in Paul's ministry (vs. 13-15).
- III. The progression is evident in the reality of the elective promises of God to the patriarchs applied to God's chosen people (vs. 16-18).
- IV. The progression is evident in the nature of saving faith (vs. 19-24).