

In Romans 12:3-8 Paul appeals to his apostolic authority to teach us 3 truths about God's diverse gifts of grace.

- I. God's gifts of grace should lead not to haughtiness but to faith-filled sober judgment (v. 2b).
- II. God's gifts of grace produce diversity from unity (vs. 4-5).
- III. God's gifts of grace are intended to be used (vs. 6-8).

In Romans 12:3-8 Paul appeals to his apostolic authority to teach us 3 truths about God's diverse gifts of grace.

- I. God's gifts of grace should lead not to haughtiness but to faith-filled sober judgment (v. 2b).
- II. God's gifts of grace produce diversity from unity (vs. 4-5).
- III. God's gifts of grace are intended to be used (vs. 6-8).