

In Romans 12:17-21 Paul presents 2 commands concerning how we are to interact with our enemies.

- I. Do not be overcome by evil (v. 21a).
 - A. By doing what is good rather than repaying evil for evil (v. 17).
 - B. By doing all you can to live peaceably with everyone (v. 18).
 - C. By trusting that God will punish evil in His time (v. 19).
- II. Overcome evil with good (v. 21b).
 - A. By delighting in doing all manner of good toward your enemies (v. 20a).
 - B. By trusting that God will punish evil in His time (v. 21).

In Romans 12:17-21 Paul presents 2 commands concerning how we are to interact with our enemies.

- I. Do not be overcome by evil (v. 21a).
 - A. By doing what is good rather than repaying evil for evil (v. 17).
 - B. By doing all you can to live peaceably with everyone (v. 18).
 - C. By trusting that God will punish evil in His time (v. 19).
- II. Overcome evil with good (v. 21b).
 - A. By delighting in doing all manner of good toward your enemies (v. 20a).
 - B. By trusting that God will punish evil in His time (v. 21).