

In Romans 13:8-10 Paul explains why we are to continually love one another by presenting a 3-fold argument.

- I. The Command: Continually love each other (v. 8a).
- II. The Reason: The lover has fulfilled the law (v. 8b).
- III. The Proof:
 - A. The lover has fulfilled the law (v. 8b).
 - B. Love your neighbor as yourself (which sums up the law) (v. 9).
 - B1. Love does no wrong to a neighbor (which sums up the law) (v. 10a).
 - A1. Love is the fulfilling of the law (v. 10b).

In Romans 13:8-10 Paul explains why we are to continually love one another by presenting a 3-fold argument.

- I. The Command: Continually love each other (v. 8a).
- II. The Reason: The lover has fulfilled the law (v. 8b).
- III. The Proof:
 - A. The lover has fulfilled the law (v. 8b).
 - B. Love your neighbor as yourself (which sums up the law) (v. 9).
 - B1. Love does no wrong to a neighbor (which sums up the law) (v. 10a).
 - A1. Love is the fulfilling of the law (v. 10b).