

In Romans 16:17-23 Paul conveys 1 warning and 8 greetings prior to ending his letter with a doxology.

- I. Paul conveys a warning: Watch out for false teachers.
  - A. You will know them by the divisions they cause (v. 17a).
  - B. You will know them by the obstacles they create (v. 17b).
  - C. You will know them because they serve themselves rather than Christ (v. 18a).
  - D. You will know them by their speech (v. 18b).
  - E. You will know them by the deception they sow (v. 18c).
  - F. You will know them as you live wise to what is good and innocent to what is evil (v. 19).
  - G. God will crush these Satan and his false teachers (v. 20).
  - H. But until then you must avoid them (v. 17c).
- II. Paul conveys greetings from 8 brothers and coworkers who are with him in Corinth (vs. 21-23).

In Romans 16:17-23 Paul conveys 1 warning and 8 greetings prior to ending his letter with a doxology.

- I. Paul conveys a warning: Watch out for false teachers.
  - A. You will know them by the divisions they cause (v. 17a).
  - B. You will know them by the obstacles they create (v. 17b).
  - C. You will know them because they serve themselves rather than Christ (v. 18a).
  - D. You will know them by their speech (v. 18b).
  - E. You will know them by the deception they sow (v. 18c).
  - F. You will know them as you live wise to what is good and innocent to what is evil (v. 19).
  - G. God will crush these Satan and his false teachers (v. 20).
  - H. But until then you must avoid them (v. 17c).
- II. Paul conveys greetings from 8 brothers and coworkers who are with him in Corinth (vs. 21-23).