

In 1 Corinthians 1:18-25 Paul demonstrates how the word of the cross reveals the world to be comprised of 2 groups of people.

- I. Those who are perishing find the word of the cross to be folly (v. 18a).
  - A. Because God promised to destroy the wisdom of the world (vs. 19-20).
  - B. Because God's wisdom prohibits people from knowing God through wisdom (v. 21a).
  - C. Because God's wisdom provides salvation through the preaching of the cross, which the perishing ones consider to be folly (v. 21b-23).
  - D. Because God is wiser & more powerful than men (v. 25).
- II. Those who are being saved find the word of the cross to be the power and wisdom of God (v. 18b, 24b).
  - A. Because they believed in the folly of the word of the cross (v. 21b).
  - B. Because God has called them (v. 24a).
  - C. Because God is wiser & more powerful than men (v. 25).

In 1 Corinthians 1:18-25 Paul demonstrates how the word of the cross reveals the world to be comprised of 2 groups of people.

- I. Those who are perishing find the word of the cross to be folly (v. 18a).
  - A. Because God promised to destroy the wisdom of the world (vs. 19-20).
  - B. Because God's wisdom prohibits people from knowing God through wisdom (v. 21a).
  - C. Because God's wisdom provides salvation through the preaching of the cross, which the perishing ones consider to be folly (v. 21b-23).
  - D. Because God is wiser & more powerful than men (v. 25).
- II. Those who are being saved find the word of the cross to be the power and wisdom of God (v. 18b, 24b).
  - A. Because they believed in the folly of the word of the cross (v. 21b).
  - B. Because God has called them (v. 24a).
  - C. Because God is wiser & more powerful than men (v. 25).