

In Mark 2:23-3:6 we find Jesus involved in 2 questions that further establish His authority as the Son of Man and the Pharisees' opposition to Him.

- I. The Pharisees ask a question: Why do you let your disciples engage in unlawful Sabbath behavior?
 - A. The scenario is set (2:23).
 - B. The question is asked (2:24).
 - C. The question is answered (2:25-26).
 - D. The implications of the answer (2:27-28).

- II. Jesus asks a question: What do you consider lawful Sabbath behavior?
 - A. The scenario is set (3:1-3).
 - B. The question is asked (3:4).
 - C. The question is answered (3:5a).
 - D. The implications of the answer (3:5b-6).

In Mark 2:23-3:6 we find Jesus involved in 2 questions that further establish His authority as the Son of Man and the Pharisees' opposition to Him.

- I. The Pharisees as a question: Why do you let your disciples engage in unlawful Sabbath behavior?
 - A. The scenario is set (2:23).
 - B. The question is asked (2:24).
 - C. The question is answered (2:25-26).
 - D. The implications of the answer (2:27-28).

- II. Jesus asks a question: What do you consider lawful Sabbath behavior?
 - A. The scenario is set (3:1-3).
 - B. The question is asked (3:4).
 - C. The question is answered (3:5a).
 - D. The implications of the answer (3:5b-6).