

In Mark 3:20-35 we find Jesus interacting with insiders and outsiders.

- I. The outsiders speak.
  - A. Jesus' family:
"He's out of his mind!" (vs. 20-21).
  - B. Jerusalem scribes
"He serves Satan!" (v. 22).
- II. Jesus speaks to the outsiders.
  - A. A parable about Satan's kingdom
(vs. 23-27).
  - B. A promise about Jesus' kingdom (v. 28).
  - C. A promise about Jesus' opposition
(vs. 29-30).
- III. Jesus speaks to the insiders.
  - A. One cannot be physically born into my family
(vs. 31-33).
  - B. One must be spiritually born into my family
(vs. 34-35).

In Mark 3:20-35 we find Jesus interacting with insiders and outsiders.

- I. The outsiders speak.
  - A. Jesus' family:
"He's out of his mind!" (vs. 20-21).
  - B. Jerusalem scribes
"He serves Satan!" (v. 22).
- II. Jesus speaks to the outsiders.
  - A. A parable about Satan's kingdom
(vs. 23-27).
  - B. A promise about Jesus' kingdom (v. 28).
  - C. A promise about Jesus' opposition
(vs. 29-30).
- III. Jesus speaks to the insiders.
  - A. One cannot be physically born into my family
(vs. 31-33).
  - B. One must be spiritually born into my family
(vs. 34-35).