

As Jesus returns to the Galilean side of the Sea of Galilee we find Him being sought out as the only hope for three people in need.

- I. Jesus is the only hope for Jairus (vs. 21-24).
- II. Jesus is the only hope for the unclean woman (vs. 25-34).
- III. Jesus is the only hope for Jairus' daughter (vs. 35-43).

As Jesus returns to the Galilean side of the Sea of Galilee we find Him being sought out as the only hope for three people in need.

- I. Jesus is the only hope for Jairus (vs. 21-24).
- II. Jesus is the only hope for the unclean woman (vs. 25-34).
- III. Jesus is the only hope for Jairus' daughter (vs. 35-43).